

Autumn SONGS

Five little acorns hanging in a tree,
Along came Mrs. Squirrel
As hungry as could be.
Then the fall winds blew
And rustled all the leaves.
Down came an acorn;
Mrs. Squirrel was so pleased!

I'm a little scarecrow
Raggety and worn
I wear a hat,
And my shirt is torn.
When the crow fly here,
I wave and shout,
"Away from my Garden,
Now get out!"

The leaves on the trees turn orange
and red
Orange and red, orange and red.
The leaves on the trees turn orange
and red,
All through the season.

(repeat with the leaves come tumbling down, the leaves go swish, swish, swish.

We will rake them in a pile and jump
right in jump right in, jump right in
We will rake them in a pile and jump
right in
All through the Fall.
